

SELICHOT

Saturday, August 28th

"Selichot" (Hebrew for 'forgiveness'), marks the official beginning and spiritual kickoff to the High Holy Days.

8-9 pm

Panel Presentation*

(Sanctuary)

Susan Shapiro, author of The Forgiveness Tour: How to Find the Perfect Apology, joins us via Zoom to discuss the central questions of her new book:

·Can you forgive someone who won't apologize?

·Should you?

·And is an apology ever not enough?

She'll be joined by Manny Mandel, D.C.

Holocaust survivor, and Gary Weinstein, Michigan forgiveness activist, who forgave the drunk driver who killed his wife and two children.

*Panel presentation will not be live streamed.

9-10 pm

Havdalah & Selichot Service
(live or via live stream)

Join Rabbi Pokras, Rabbi Weiss, Cantor Eschler and Joshana Erenberg for uplifting music and prayer to open our spiritual and mental "gates" and warm up our hearts and minds for the High Holy Days.
